Who Should Attend:

This is an introductory course targeted for non-managers, managers, supervisors, leaders and others.

Course Description:

Upon completion of this course, attendees will be able to:

- Distinguish between a true need to act and a set of conditions that needs no action
- Use simple yet effective methods to think more creatively and generate novel ideas to even old, recurring problem states.
- Apply a clear, step-by-step approach to problem solving that permits the best results to be found, in the least amount of time and with the least stress to all involved.
- Work with others even though their respective psychological styles and methods for problem solving may be different.
